

Project Profile

Hartlepool Hospital – Aseptic Suite

Introduction

The University of Hartlepool has 334 beds, serving 147,500 people living in Hartlepool and the southern part of East Durham. It provides a wide range of specialities, including accident and emergency, general medicine, surgery and urology, orthopaedics, rheumatology, obstetrics and gynaecology and paediatrics.

Data

Industry Sector:	Aseptic Suite
Cleanroom Classification:	Class 10,000/100 Grade C/B
Value:	£109,000
Time on Site:	8 weeks
Physical Size:	68m <sup>2</sup>

Scope of Work

CDC Cleanroom Specialists were employed as principal contractors and designers for a complete design and build turnkey cleanroom facility incorporated:

- Partitioning
- Ceiling
- Vinyl floor
- Strip-out
- Builder's work
- Air conditioning plant
- Automatic controls
- Electrical and lighting
- Mechanical pipework and ductwork
- Commissioning and Validation

Client Comments

'We would like to convey our thanks to the project contractor, CDC Cleanroom Specialists, for having upgraded our Aseptic Services Unit at the University of Hartlepool to the latest standards, from which to produce quality products, which contribute to the care of the people of Hartlepool.'

-The Aseptic Team at Hartlepool